48th Annual Aqueous Media Exhibition

WATERCOLOR SOCIETY OF OREGON

Margaret Godfrey
WSO President

We all fell in love with Artful Albany! The city welcomed us with open arms. Albany's mayor, Sharon Konopa, personally greeted us both at our Meet and Greet and at the Artist's Reception. Rob Robinson and Stephanie Low did a fabulous job of planning and organizing the convention with events to suit everyone's interests. There were many art education activities as well as several events taking advantage of the historical background of the town. With the help of many energetic volunteers the entire weekend flowed smoothly without a hitch. The exhibit opened at Albany's City Hall on Saturday night and will continue until the end of April. Albany City Hall is a tremendous venue for is this strong and beautiful WSO show.

Our juror, Mary Ann Beckwith, selected 80 amazing paintings for this exhibit, creating a stunning show. Her participation throughout the weekend made it obvious what a generous and talented artist she is. Mary Ann has a long list of memberships in national organizations, many top awards and 39 years as an art professor, but it is her passion for art that impressed me. For Mary Ann the selected pieces had an emotional impact that set them apart from the others. How lucky I feel to be one the 25 participants in her workshop!

The Juror - Mary Anne Beckwith, NWS

Mary Anne Beckwith

Judging an exhibit is always a a challenge as well as an honor and a privilege The work presented most often represents the best efforts of the artists, their visions and their hopes. Choosing the work to be included in the exhibit is a task never to be taken lightly. It is a task that is never easy and is very complex. After viewing the entries many times the show begins to form and selections become more apparent. Choice after choice and finally the show takes shape. It will reflect a personality all of it's own.

I seek work that displays a strong personal expression by the artist. It should be an image that reveals a fresh vision and a strong concept. The work should show technical competence and control of the medium chosen by the artist. Composition that is thoughtfully planned and that indicates a thorough understanding of the principles of design is another essential for the art selected. Finally the work should be engaging to the audience.

Congratulations to all of the WSO members who have worked so hard to make this exhibit the beautiful show that it is. First, thanks to all those who submitted work whether accepted or not. The artists should all be proud of the high quality of the work submitted and accepted. Thanks also, to all of the volunteers who worked with such dedication to make this show the wonderful event it is. Thanks to the Board and all their work to maintain such a high quality show. It is a wonderful tribute to the joys and beauty of Watermedia.
