45th Annual Transparent Watercolor Exhibition

WATERCOLOR
SOCIETY OF OREGON

Harold Walkup
WSO President

The Watercolor Society of Oregon is proud to present our 45th Transparent Watercolor Exhibition. A strong and beautiful show... as you will see in this catalog of 80 paintings chosen by our wonderful juror Karen Vernon. The entire exhibition was presented at the Elsinore Framing and Fine Art Gallery in Salem in October. The 20 award winning paintings will travel throughout Oregon for 5 additional months (see schedule on page 9). Every convention venue, expertly co-chaired by Sandra Manning and Kathy Haney, was within walking distance from our home base of the Grand Hotel. Volunteers showered us with food, entertainment, paint-outs, and rides on the Riverfront Carousel. Everyone did a fantastic job to make this convention a grand success.

WSO was very honored to have Karen Vernon as our juror in Salem. Karen currently lives in Texas. Her paintings hang in museum collections in Europe, the United States, and in private and corporate collections, such as the Royal Family of Saudi, Delta Airlines, the Chateau de Vuilliens, the National PGA Headquarters, the Moody Gardens Resort Hotel, and the Walt Disney Corporation. She has been elected to the Birmingham Watercolour Society, Birmingham, U.K., is in Who's Who in American Art, Strathmore's Who's Who and holds a signature membership in the Texas Watercolor Society and the Watercolor Art Society in Houston.

The Watercolor Society of Oregon is a statewide non-profit organization that began in 1966 and has over 900 members. WSO is committed to furthering the interest in Watermedia and Transparent Watercolor through exhibitions of members' work, creating educational opportunities, and two annual exhibitions. For membership information please visit our website at www.watercolorsocietyoforegon.com.

The Juror - Karen Vernon

The October 2010 WSO show is a diverse collection of themes and styles. The works submitted are a reflection of painting by many skilled artists with a broad vision. The exhibition is a unique blend of exciting color, interesting imagery, and a multifaceted interpretation of the transparent medium.

As a juror, the process is never easy. Difficult decisions have to be made. In selecting the watercolors for this year's exhibition, I sought to focus on technical excellence in transparent watercolor. I further looked for quality of composition and clarity of voice, the creative expression of the artist's concept. I looked at how the artist went beyond the ordinary solutions to express the content of the painting.

Many of the paintings in the exhibit are clearly fresh in approach. Many others reflect a dedicated and lengthy exploration of concept and technique. Both the commitment to practice and the more experimental quests have resulted in paintings of the highest quality.

The show, itself, is a visual journey of exploration. From tightly executed, realistic paintings to fully expressive interpretive design, the exhibition represents a passion for the transparent medium. The WSO show comes together as a playfully serious combination of realism and abstraction, sometimes intense in color and other times quiet as a misty morning. The paintings explore earth, air, water and the human experience.

I would like to thank all who submitted entries and congratulate those who were selected for this year's show. As well, I would like to offer a special thanks to the WSO board, exhibition committee and the many volunteers whose organized efforts helped to make the jurying process easier and the exhibition stunning.

It has been a great privilege and honor to jury the WSO 2010 Fall Exhibition and to be a workshop teacher. I wish the society and artists continued success and growth for the future.

WSO thanks Karen for her generous donation of a beautiful painting. See page 24
